

RAFB students:

Student taking classes on Randolph Air Force Base-RAFB must go to the Visitor's Center on RAFB beginning Monday through Friday between the hours of 7:00 a.m. to 6 p.m. to obtain a pass for the duration of their class held on RAFB. Base passes will not be issued to student or instructors until the day prior to the class scheduled date. The RAFB Visitor's Center is located just to the right of the main gate off of Pat Booker Road. If the student arrives after 6 p.m. they will not receive a pass.

Holidays:

Student and staff will not be able to obtain a base pass on holiday and Saturdays. They must obtain a pass Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Students need to bring to the Visitor's center the following items prior to the first day of classes in order to obtain a base pass:

- License Plate number
- Proof of insurance (remove the extra bullet that is listed next on the page)
- A valid TX state issued driver's license
- Wayland Baptist University- student or instructor ID
- Copy of school schedule

Instruction to classroom building:

To get to building 208 the student needs to travel through the main gate located on Harmon Drive. Make the third right-hand turn, which puts you in front of the Randolph Air Force Base Service Station. Continue on the S-curve road. The student will pass the Randolph Main BX as well as the Randolph Air Force Base Commissary. The student will come to a yield sign, at the yield sign bear right. The building entrance is two glass brown doors pass the AFOSI location. Students and instructors will be able to access room 29 and room 37 through these doors. These doors lock promptly at 9:30 p.m. Please be mindful of this when entering and exiting the building.
